

Navigation Notice No 10 of 2022

Recreational Activities

Mariners are advised that a number of recreational activities including but not limited to

- Paddleboard
- Wild Swimming
- Kayaking
- Surfing

Are generally being undertaken in the area bounded by the 5m contour to the North of the North breakwater.

Mariners are advised to proceed with caution and are reminded to ensure a proper lookout is available during a port approach and departure.

Vessels that create a large wash at speeds over 5 kts are requested to keep their speed to a minimum to avoid creating a large wash wave when within 0.2nm of the North Breakwater

All small vessels are required to keep a good look out for small recreational craft.
